Rotech Healthcare Inc. Announces Closing of Registered Exchange Offer for Senior Second Lien Notes due 2018

Orlando, Florida, July 19, 2011 — Rotech Healthcare Inc. (OTCBB: ROHI), one of the largest providers of home medical equipment and related products and services, announced today that it has completed its registered exchange offer to exchange $283,500,000 aggregate principal amount of its Senior Second Lien Notes due 2018 (the “Exchange Notes”) for an equal principal amount of its outstanding Senior Second Lien Notes due 2018, which were issued in a private placement (the “Private Notes”).

$283,500,000 in aggregate principal amount of Private Notes were exchanged in the exchange offer and were accepted by Rotech. The exchange offer expired at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 12, 2011.

Rotech agreed when it issued the Private Notes to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, relating to the exchange offer pursuant to which Rotech would offer the Exchange Notes, containing substantially identical terms to the Private Notes, in exchange for Private Notes that are tendered by the holders of those notes.

Any Private Notes not tendered for exchange in the exchange offer will remain outstanding and continue to accrue interest, but will not retain any rights under the registration rights agreement except in limited circumstances.

This announcement does not constitute an offer to purchase or a solicitation of an offer to sell securities. The exchange offer was made only pursuant to a prospectus and the related letter of transmittal and only to such persons and in such jurisdictions as is permitted under applicable law.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains certain statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and the provisions of section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) and section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. These forward-looking statements include all statements regarding the intent, belief or current expectations regarding the matters discussed in this press release and all statements which are not statements of historical fact. Words such as “expects,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “estimates,” “projects,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “would,” variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, contingencies and other factors that could cause results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those stated in this press release. The following are some but not all of such risks, uncertainties, contingencies, assumptions and other factors, many of which are beyond our control, that could cause results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those anticipated: general economic, financial and business conditions; setting of new reimbursement rates and other changes in reimbursement policies, the timing of reimbursements, and other legislative initiatives aimed at reducing health care costs associated with Medicare and Medicaid; issues relating to reimbursement by government and third-party payors for our products and services generally; the impact of competitive bidding on Medicare volume in the impacted competitive bidding areas; the costs associated with government regulation of the health care industry; health care reform and the effect of changes in federal and state health care regulations generally; whether we will be subject to additional regulatory restrictions or penalties; issues relating to our ability to maintain effective internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures; compliance with federal and state regulatory agencies, as well as accreditation standards and confidentiality requirements with respect to patient information; the effects of competition, industry consolidation and referral sources; recruiting, hiring and retaining qualified employees and directors; compliance with various settlement agreements and corporate compliance programs; the costs and effects of legal proceedings; our ability to meet our working capital, capital expenditures and other liquidity needs; our ability to maintain compliance with the covenants contained in our indentures for our senior secured notes and our senior second lien notes; our ability to successfully transition and retain patients associated with equipment and asset purchases; our ability to maintain current levels of collectability on our accounts receivable; and other factors described in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Readers should refer to the discussion under “Risk Factors” in Item 1A and under the heading “Certain Significant Risks and Uncertainties” in Note 15 of the Consolidated Financial Statements in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed February 28, 2011 for a description of additional risks and uncertainties. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, our actual results, performance or achievements could differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, such forward-looking statements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date thereof. When you consider these forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind these risk factors and other cautionary statements in this press release. We do not undertake any obligation to release any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
